

Cased Pair Turn-Over Percussion Pistols Catalogue-Nr: 700080

A fine cased pair of English turn-over percussion pistols; about 1845; 8 mm calibre; 45 mm case hardened barrels; the frame engraved LACY & CO LONDON (Lacy & Co who worked in London 1822-1853); 148 mm total length; engraved and case hardened actions and hammers; engraved sliding safeties; blued trigger-guards; excellent chequered rounded butts with German silver escutcheons; London proof marks; in its original lined and fitted fine mahogany case with the original key; with some accessories, including a very fine and small powder flask; the interior of the lid with the original trade label of Lacy & Reynolds. A very fine and nice original set. The pistols are smaller than the most like this.

EWB (for Germany and EU, see terms)

Condition: A cased pair in fine condition.

References:

HEER DER NEUE STOCKLE (Eugene Heer)

Price: 7900 EUR

