

Exceptional Cased French Adams Percussion Revolver Catalogue-Nr: 700128

A rare licensed Adams self cocking percussion revolver; .45 calibre, made about 1855; blued and engraved barrel, frame and cylinder; the barrel signed LEPAGE MOUTHIER A PARIS (son-in-law of Henri Lepage, took over his business in 1842 at 8 rue de Richelieu, Paris); on the right side ADAM'S PATENT NO. 11948, five shot cylinder; very fine relief carved ebony grip; fine engraved and blued butt cap; blued trigger guard and trigger; fitted in its original case lined with bordeaux velvet; fine accessories include a nice powder flask, correct double cavity tailed bullet mould, nipple wrench, cleaning rods.

EWB (for Germany and EU, see terms)

Condition:

It is an exceptional set with a revolver in near factory new condition with 98-99 % original finish.

Price: 16900 EUR

