

Rare Cased WEBLEY GREEN 1894 Revolver Catalogue-Nr: 700141

Cased WEBLEY GREEN TARGET MODEL 1894 with auxiliary .297/ .230 Morris barrel and cylinder. SN 8338. Cal. .455 and 297/ 230 Morris long. Blued finish. 7-1/2" Bbl is marked "P. Webley & Son London & Birmingham" on top rib, and "'W. G" Target Model". Pistol is fitted with improved target sights, nickel-plated sight protector, and squared butt with checkered walnut grips. Oak case with pivoting brass hook, interior is lined in blue cloth with large paper label for "Webley's Patent Extractor Revolvers".

EWB (for Germany and EU, see terms)

Condition:

Excellent condition, retaining 85-90 % original high polish blue. Grips show some wear. Hammer, extractor mechanism, and trigger retain nearly all their bright polish. Bore is very good with some minor pitting. Action is crisp. Case is excellent, retaining most of its exterior varnish. Interior cloth is fine. Label is slightly foxed with some wear.

Price: 14900 EUR

