

Cased English .442 Cal Rimfire Revolver Catalogue-Nr: 700066

A rare cased English 6-shot cartridge rimfire revolver; about 1865; .442 cal., round charcoal blued barrel, the top strap engraved BEATTIE & SON, 205 REGENT ST. LONDON (James Beattie used the name BEATTIE & SON 1864-1880) 310 mm total length; charcoal blued six shot cylinder; case hardened loading gate; serial number 3676; Birmingham proof marks; excellent chequered walnut grip with engraved and blued straps; blued and engraved frame, over 95 % original charcoal blue over all; fitted in his original mahogany case lined in green felt with oil bottle, clearing rod and cartridge tray (small crack).

An important item for a collector of English revolvers.

EWB (for Germany and EU, see terms)

Condition:

A revolver in excellent condition.

Price: 4900 EUR

